Back To The Future Iii
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects wistfully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper and tells how he and Huckleberry Finn have been skipping school that afternoon and went to St. Petersburg, where Tom has穿过 a field and chased a bear that had stolen his clothing. He tells his mother, but Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom and the new arrival each do part of the whitewashing. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom comes across a "white alley," a kind of名誉, he is almost thrown off, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of esteem. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

Tom comes home at supper time. As usual, he has attended school, but he has been skipped school that afternoon and went fishing. Tom’s aunt is amazed to see that Tom’s clothes are still soiled from fishing. Tom’s half-brother, Ben, is still working in the warehouse. Tom has woven the shirt himself to disguise his clothes. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house to find his father, who has been drinking and whistling. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival on the river, Huckleberry Finn, meet and eventually choose the newcomer as the way home.
